

Victoria Tauli-Corpuz is the Director of the Tebtebba Foundation (Indigenous Peoples' International Center for Policy Research & Education), an Indigenous peoples organization with United Nations consultative status based in Baguio City, Phillipines.

Victoria is an indigenous activist who has been involved for more than 30 years in defence of the rights and culture of Indigenous peoples.

Victoria is active in the anti-globalization movement and follows closely international process affecting the development and environmental rights of Indigenous people s. Victoria is also a former member of the Crucible Group.